

SWSS / Filosofiska School

Activity Report for the months of November/ December 2013

Operation of the school

After Dashain and Tihar holidays, the school started its operation with two weeks of delay, on the 20th of November. Due to unstable political situation in Nepal, caused by elections, there was no school bus transportation for children.

In November and December there were three volunteers involved in teaching and school activities, Sien Decuyperre a masters student from Belgium, teaching English for class 3 and 4, Anji K. C. teaching English for class 1 and Rosy Shreshta, helping in preschool.

In the month of December SWSS/ Filosofiska conducted 2nd terms examinations, the results will be published in the month of January.

In the same month there was a visit from two travellers from Sweden who were very impressed by the school and mentioned the school in their blog : Biking around the world against poverty.

Teacher Training

One training was conducted by Dipti Kumar, a volunteer from England, on the topic: What makes a teacher a good teacher.

Filosofiska Lessons

In the months of November and December, there were no Filosofiska lessons conducted in the school.

Special Programs

Hair Cut Program

SWSS/ Filosofiska conducted a hair cut program for all children. There was a big lice problem in the school, so the teachers decided to call a barber to cut all children's hair. The students loved the program because they were allowed to decide about their own personal haircut.

Music Program

Dipti Kumar, a volunteer from England, conducted four music programs in the months of November and December.

Christmas Program

On the 24th of December, SWSS / Filosofiska organized a Christmas program for children. Together with the teachers, the children decorated the Christmas tree and the volunteer from England, Dipti Kumar, conducted a music program, singing Christmas Carols songs. After the program all the children got a small Christmas gift, a pair of socks and sweets.
