Monthly Progress Report of July 2015

Operation of the School:

This month we gave more focus on study. As we restart our school from June, we need to catch up the missing lessons. All the teachers as well as students were really working hard to get best result. Despite we feel some aftershock students and teachers were really active and participative.

Progress of the month:

This month we welcome our volunteer Miss Puja K.C in our team. She is really down to earth kind of person. She is talent and she loves to spend time with the children.

We admitted our class four students in grade five in different schools.

Ranjita tamang of class U.k.G who went to her village after earthquake join school on last week of July. She lost her relatives but she seems to be fine. She is now regular in her class.

Teacher's Training:

This month we had one day workshop on Climate Change Education for Sustainable Development at Hotel Annapurna with the representatives from Education Ministry and different government schools.

The two hour in-House teachers training on "How to encourage the students to perform his/her best" is conducted on 24th of July, 2015.

Teachers also prepares birthday chart of the all the students with the help of volunteer from the Southwestern State College.

Special programs:

- 1. Talent Show: On 24th July, 2015 we had talent show. We make all the students participate in cultural program. They perform different cultural programs. They did B buoying which was amazing.
- 2. Teachers Day: Celebrating Teachers day is very old tradition and it is related with ancient Hindu tradition. Students pay homage to the teachers, offer them flowers and receive blessings from the teacher. In this auspicious occasion teachers are given the highest degree of respect.
- 3. Bhanu Jayanti celebaration: Bhanu Bhakta Achartya is first poet of Nepal. His writing was significant in the Nepalese Society where common people did not have access to this great epic. His translate Ramanayan in neplai language was a milestone in Nepali Literature as it was written in common language understood by all. On this day we had poem writing completion between students from grade two and three. Later on they read poem infront of the teachers and friends.
- 4. Eid Celebration

5. Shrawan 15 celebration: the 15th day of the Nepali month of Shrawan is considered as the day to eat Kheer, known as rice pudding. On this day we prepare Kheer and all the students enjoy it.

Conclusions:

This month we had visitor Ms. Arnita Mnandhar from all the way from Wembley, London. She provides us educational as well as playing materials for our school. She visited on 31 st July to our school and had lunch with our students. She brings chicken, rice and lentil for lunch and pastries and cake for snacks. Children really enjoy her company. School teacher by profession she just loves to be with children. She provides us basketball with basketball ring, football with football post, badminton, carrum board, skipping, ring, leggos, chairs, magnetic board, stacking ring, stationeries, musical instruments and many more. She spend whole day with the children.
